Proclamation of the Word

1st Reading: Revelation 7:9-14

Sue Pickard

Psalm 34:1-10, 22

To God I sing my grateful praise, God's goodness ever bless;
the proud convictions of my soul now speak God's righteousness.

Come, magnify the Lord with me! Together bring God praise,
Whose presence overcomes all fear, whose glory lights our days.

O taste and see, the Lord is good! How blest are they who place
Reliance on God's steadfast love and trust God's saving grace.

How great the trials the faithful bear, yet greater is God's will,
That from the threatening chill of death God's truth redeems us still.

2nd Reading: 1 John 3:1-3

Homily

The Rev. Leah Arvidsson

Anthem "I Saw the God of Peace", Words, Atis Kenins & Music, George Juris Kenins

I saw the God of Peace go by, His light upon the water.
And Heaven laid tranquility o'er the sea, the peaceful sea.

The sea began to shimmer as breath across the waves.
The setting sun, it stopped its path and spilled across humanity.

The golden air swing gently, as vesper bells at sunset.
The sun its face did hide from me, Its silence over whelming.

The children stopped their frolicking, their voices quiet too
Against the shore boats slowly rocked while birds found evening shelter.

A gentle peace fell o'er the sea, it's calm spread to the land.
We raised our arms up to the sky, with prayers both deep and holy.

I saw the God of Peace go by, His light upon the water.
And Heaven laid tranquility o'er the sea, the peaceful sea.
The sea, the peaceful sea.
